

The Bulldog Trust

2014

The Bulldog Trust has given financial and advisory assistance to charities since 1983. Our headquarters, Two Temple Place, is both a focal point and an inspiration for our activities.

DISCOVERIES: ART, SCIENCE & EXPLORATION
FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE MUSEUMS

EVENTS CALENDAR

Detail of An Allegorical Monument to Sir Isaac Newton (1727-29), Giovanni Battista Pittoni, Domenico and Giuseppe Valeriani. ©The Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge.

DISCOVERIES: ART, SCIENCE & EXPLORATION
EVENTS CALENDAR

DAYTIME EVENTS

Spotlight Talks	Hear the fascinating hidden stories behind key objects on display from Cambridge experts.	Friday 14th February, 21st February, 7th March, 21st March	1pm	Free
Tours of Two Temple Place	Learn more of the history and architecture of the exquisite neo-gothic masion built for William Waldorf Astor.	Every Wednesday during the Exhibition (excluding 19th February)	4:30pm	Free

EVENING EVENTS

Sixth Form Private View	Find out more about careers in curating, conservation, collections care and exhibition planning. Hosted by University of Cambridge Museums. For sixth form students only. Please email education@twotempleplace.org to reserve a place.	Monday 3rd February	6-8pm	Free
Curator Tour - One	An exclusive insight into the themes of the exhibition from Co-Curator of Discoveries, Professor Nicholas Thomas, Director of the Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology. Maximum: 20	Thursday 13th February	6:30pm	£15 per person
John Woodward: 'A Droll Sort of Philosopher'	Described by his 17th century contemporaries as 'a rude and insolent fellow', Dr Ken McNamara, Director of Sedgwick Museum of Earth Sciences, argues that Sedgwick founder Woodward bequeathed one of the world's most important historical geological collections.	Monday 24th February	7pm (doors open at 6.30pm)	£5 per person

The Nature of Discovery	Join 5 Cambridge Museum directors as they debate how differing notions and meanings of 'discovery' have enriched our understanding of the world and inspired the creation of their extraordinary collections.	Thursday 27th February	7pm (doors open at 6.30pm)	£8 per person
Curator Tour - Two	Co-Curator Martin Caiger-Smith reveals the method and meaning behind Discoveries. Maximum: 20	Thursday 6th March	6:30pm	£15 per person
Castle of Commerce or Gothic Fantasy?	Barbara Bryant, author of the recently published history of Two Temple Place, looks at how William Waldorf Astor's fascinating life and experiences led to the creation of one of London's most remarkable buildings.	Thursday 13th March	7pm (doors open at 6.30pm)	£8 per person
The Encounter Between Art and Science	Contemporary artist and exhibition contributor, Sophy Rickett, is challenged by co-curator Martin Caiger-Smith, on portraying the meeting of art and science.	Thursday 20th March	7pm (doors open at 6.30pm)	£5 per person
Drawing Discoveries	Change the way you see! Explore drawing from observation with Discoveries Artist in Residence Clara Drummond. Maximum: 20	Monday 24th March	6:30 - 8:30pm	£15 per person (materials provided)
Darwin and the Arts	In later life, Darwin took no pleasure in aesthetics but celebrated Cambridge Academic Professor Dame Gillian Beer reveals how the great Naturalist's earlier devotion to music, poetry, and the visual arts retained its influence over his theories.	Thursday 27th March	7pm (doors open at 6.30pm)	£8 per person
Discovering the World Within	Discover how imaging and materials analysis is used to explore the secret stories of objects at this illustrated lecture from UCM conservators and research scientists.	Monday 31st March	7pm (doors open at 6.30pm)	£5 per person

City Stories: Dance United	Join renowned performance company, Dance United, as they explore the urban reality of seven unique individuals; expect juggling, gymnastics and a not quite operatic performance in this eclectic dance piece.	Thursday 3rd April	7pm and 8pm	£8 per person
		Two Performances
Poetry in Motion	Experience the beauty of Rumi poetry, music, laser and dance as international theatre group, Unstructured Light, respond to the objects of wonder on display with a stunning performance in the Great Hall.	Friday 11th April	7pm (doors open at 6.30pm)	£15 per person
Life Drawing Revelations: London Drawing	Join an unforgettable drawing experience using a combination of live models, visual effects and exciting materials inspired by the unique treasures on display.	Thursday 17th April	7pm (doors open at 6.30pm)	£20 per person (materials provided)

WEDNESDAY LATES Café and Bar open late

Jazz Nights	Enjoy the exhibition accompanied by ambient jazz from the London College for Contemporary Music.	Wednesday LATES: 5th February	6-9pm	Free
Twilight at the Museum	Explore Discoveries at Two Temple Place by candle-light. Bring your own torch and shine light on these objects of wonder. Surprises await!	Wednesday LATES: 19th February	6-9pm	Free
Origami Party	Discover the traditional Japanese art form of paper folding as you create your very own hand-crafted masterpiece under the expert guidance of Sesame Origami.	Wednesday LATES: 5th March	6:30pm and 7:30pm	£5 per workshop (All levels)
London College of Contemporary Music	Enjoy contemporary music composed specially for the exhibition and the house by talented LCCM musicians.	Wednesday LATES: 19th March	7.30-8.30pm	Free

Making Discoveries & Graphic Narratives: Campaign for Drawing	Draw your own story and breathe life into characters with graphic novelist Karrie Fransman (The Guardian, The Times). Limited spaces – booking advisable.	Wednesday 16th April	6-9pm	Free Teens +
Jazz Nights	Enjoy the exhibition accompanied by ambient jazz from the London College for Contemporary Music.	Wednesday LATES: 23rd April	6-9pm	Free

FAMILY EVENTS Continues on last page

Sunday Craft	Utamaro Japanese lanterns, butterfly pictures and aboriginal art - create your own objects of wonder at our regular Sunday children's craft sessions.	Sundays For more details, see: www.twotempleplace.org	2-4pm Drop in	Free
Museum of Tomorrow: Campaign for Drawing	Draw a favourite object or invent one for a future museum. Design a useful 21st century gadget, like a homework buster or sock sorter with Tom Barnecut Watson and Sinead Long.	Monday 17th February	12 - 4pm Drop in	Free
Meet the Discoverers: Mary Anning	Meet the famous Victorian fossil hunter, who made her first major discovery at the age of 11 and create your very own fossil to take home. 10 children per session - booking advisable.	Wednesday 19th February	11.10am, 12.10pm, 1.30pm & 2.30pm	Free
Candlelit Storytelling: 'The Lion who Discovered his Roar'	Be entranced by this traditional folk-tale told amongst the candlelit fairy-tale interiors of Two Temple Place.	Thursday 20th February	4.30pm and 5.30pm	£3 per child. Booking advisable
Design your own Snow Goggles	Construct your own pair of fashionable snow goggles to help you find your way around the exhibition in style.	Friday 21st February	1-3pm Drop in	Free Age 6+
Drawing Discoveries with Pippa Ridley: Campaign for Drawing	Discover how to use tone and line to create 3-D volume on paper, inspired by the magnificent Greek Sculptures of Hermes, Aphrodite and Apollo.	Saturday 15th March	12-4pm Drop in	Free

FAMILY EVENTS Continued

Games Galore	Inspired by the ancient Snakes & Ladders board on display, join in the fun for an afternoon of board games old and new - revisit the classics or discover a new favourite.	Monday 14th April	1-3pm Drop in	Free
--------------	--	-------------------	------------------	------

Meet the Discoverers: Charles Darwin	Take a trip back in time to meet the famous scientist. Learn about evolution and join him in a worm making session! 10 children per session - booking advisable.	Wednesday 16th April	11.10am, 12.10pm, 1.30pm & 2.30pm	Free
--------------------------------------	---	----------------------	-----------------------------------	------

Puppet Explorers	Create your very own Captain Cook or Mary Anning 3-D explorer puppet.	Thursday 17th April	1-3pm Drop in	Free
------------------	---	---------------------	------------------	------

Easter Egg-stravaganza	Turn an egg into a work of art! Create an Easter bunny, a chick or your own egg-head character! Limited spaces – booking advisable.	Friday 18th April	1-3pm	Free Age 6+
------------------------	--	-------------------	-------	----------------

Book tickets to all our events at www.twotempleplacegallery.eventbrite.co.uk. For more information about any event please visit www.twotempleplace.org, email info@twotempleplace.org or telephone 0207 836 3715.

Calling Young Explorers! Are you bold enough? Walk with extinct creatures, trek to the Antarctic and discover far off galaxies. Only the intrepid will discover the treasure in our Young Explorer Trail. For those who like to stay closer to home, let our beautifully illustrated Family Guide help you uncover the stories behind the objects.

Trail and Guide created for the exhibition in partnership with White Wall Yellow Door

We wish to thank Campaign for Drawing for providing children's workshops and Faber-Castell for donating materials.

Artist in Residence - Clara Drummond

Meet Clara Drummond our Exhibition Artist in Residence. Find her here most Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays as she creates her own body of work in response to the exhibition. On Friday 16th May (10am - 4:30pm) we will reopen for one day to exhibit Clara's work from her Residency.
